The second system of musical notation consists of two staves, Treble (T) and Bass (B), with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and accidentals, with some notes marked with fingerings (e.g., 2, 3, 4, 5) and dynamics (e.g., f , p). The piece is titled "The Great Wall of China" and is composed by "J. S. Bach".
